

1.) Visionary CrossFit Gallery
716 N Main Street

2.) Art Alley
717 NW 1st Street

3.) Vine Bread & Pasta
627 N Main St

4.) Kirsikka Jewelry
534 N Main St

5.) Jason Straw Woodworker
518 NW 2nd Street

6.) Anthem Tattoo/Zorka Rose Gallery
230 NW 2nd Ave

7.) The Shop at Holy Trinity
119 N Main St

8.) Matheson History Museum
513 East University Avenue

9.) Market Street Pub
112 SW 1st Ave.

10.) Eleanor Blair Studio & Gallery
113 South Main Street

11.) Lennie Kesi Artist Studios
Tench Building - 117 S Main St

12.) Sweetwater Print Cooperative
115 S Main St

13.) Vellos Historic Brickstreet Grill
115 SE 1st St

14.) Starbucks Downtown
201 SE First St

15.) Artisans' Guild Gallery
201 SE 2nd Place, Suite 113

16.) Persona Vintage Clothing/Costumes
201 SE 2nd Pl. #114

17.) Hippodrome Gallery
25 SE 2nd Place

18.) Civic Media Center
433 S Main Street

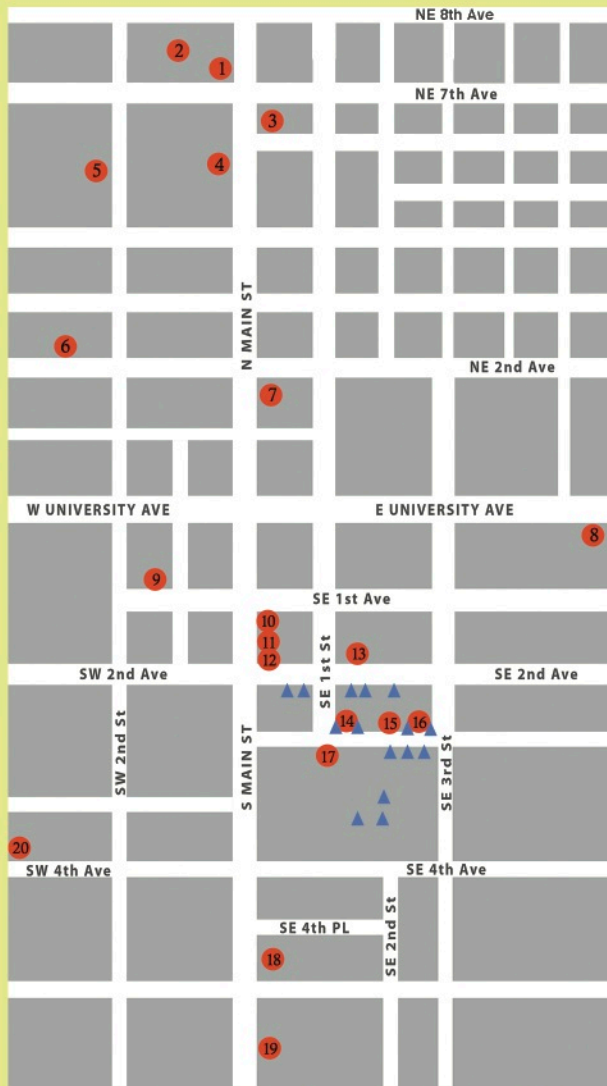

19.) SoMA Art Media Hub
601 South main Street

20.) 4Most Gallery
534 SW 4th Ave

● = Artwalk Venue

▲ = Downtown Public Sculpture

Discover Local Artists, Venues & More
GAINESVILLEARTSCENE.COM

THE SHOP AT HOLY TRINITY

Our Business Sponsors

February 27th, 2015 7-10 PM

"Sea Forest" by Natacha Monnalisa

Kirsikka Jewelry
534 N Main Street

Gainesville, FL 32601

www.artwalkgainesville.com

1.) Visionary CrossFit Gallery

716 N Main Street

Visionary CrossFit Gallery presents "Creatrix: A Showcase of Female Creators," featuring paintings, mixed media works, photography, collage, and live painting performance by our area's emerging women artists including Sarah White, Amanda Moon, Miki Lansdowne, Joy Carmen, Rhianna Saling, and gallery owner Carrie Wachter, whose painting is currently featured on the Artwalk Gainesville website's home page. Great music, live art, and an Arts and Craft Market celebrating talented female artists...it's "Ladies Night" at the gallery!

2.) Art Alley

717 NW 1st Street

Art Alley- Gainesville's Community Clay Studio- Artists exhibiting this month include Jason Teisinger- functional ware, Janet Suggs- old world functional ware. John Snyder will be showing functional stoneware and Robert Cooper will show funtional stoneware and relief prints. Please come by for refreshments and see our studio.

3.) Vine Bread & Pasta

627 N Main St

"Topologies" is Elif Akcali's current art which focuses on mostly paper to develop 2D and 3D pieces as well as site-specific installations that are contemporary and abstract. Much of her work is deeply rooted in the rich history and the dualities of the cultural environment of her native Turkey. Her early education in piano and formal training in industrial and systems engineering influence the geometric shapes, hidden structures, and repeating patterns in her work. Her most recent community art project is entitled "The Inventory Project" part of which will be shown at Vine during the art walk.

4.) Kirsikka Jewelry

534 N Main Street

Natacha Monnalisa was born on July 23, 1977, in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. Early in her childhood Natacha showed a great deal of interest in the arts, entering and winning various contests for children. In 1990, she moved to Miami, Florida, and attended the prestigious magnet school program, Design and Architecture. There she studied and excelled in the field of fashion design. Later she completed her BA and MA degrees with high honors from the University of Miami, in South Florida.

5.) Jason Straw Woodworker

518 NW 2nd Street

Jason Straw Woodworker is opening his studio to show the shop's latest efforts. A record cabinet made of Black Limba that sits on a anthropomorphic Black Walnut base. A sculptural dining room table made of ancient Swamp Cypress. There will also be on display a kitchen made from old growth pine floor joists that was salvaged from a historic church. Please follow the lights and brick driveway around back.

6.) Anthem Tattoo/ Zorka Rose Gallery

230 NW 2nd Ave

Anthem Tattoo will be showing a continuation of Cindy Steiler's work. There will be new pieces from her Forgotten series, as well new work from her series titled, Saudade.

7.) The Shop at Holy Trinity

119 N Main Street

Stop in to see Spring and Easter decorations crafted in our workshop. Recent additions to inventory include hand painted children's furniture and vintage collectibles. Paintings and pottery are on display as well as hand-crafted jewelry.

8.) Matheson History Museum

513 East University Avenue

Coming for the first time to Gainesville the Florida Museum of History's new exhibition entitled "Florida's Got the Blues." It showcases musicians who pioneered the blues music during the early twentieth century. Hear Florida's musical heritage come alive at this interactive exhibition, which features a blues ensemble and a blues stage. See the Matheson transformed into a Blues-eum great for kids and kids at heart. Explore the story of the many notable blues artists who had roots in Florida. The exhibition features the story of other Florida musicians including Tampa Red, Diamond Teeth Mary, Dickey Betts of the Allman Brothers and many more.

9.) Market Street Pub

112 SW 1st Ave.

The historic Market Street Pub will be hosting multiple artists including local musician H.R. Gertner and live painting demonstrations by Blake Harrison.

10.) Sweetwater Print Cooperative

115 S Main Street

Sweetwater presents Leslie Peebles' "Artist Push-ups: Pastels, Paintings and Experimental Works". Peebles says, "A great deal of art goes on behind the major pieces. I do plain air pastels and paintings to keep my connection to the land and animals fresh and alive. These pieces inform and improve all my other work. I revel in wax and encaustics too. All the work combines into a coherent, full and rich body of work that explores Florida's wild heritage.

11.) Lennie Kesi Artist Studios

Tench Building - 117 S Main Street

Lynne Buchanan, a local photographer who moved to the Gainesville area last year, was fortunate enough to be able to attend a Cross Cultural Journeys trip to Cuba last fall before the doors were opened. On this 10-day journey, she met city planners, historians, architects, musicians, and dancers, as well as roaming the streets of Santiago, Guantanamo, Baracoa, and Havana. She will be sharing photographs of the people and places she visited and will share her impressions of this complicated country on the brink of development.

12.) Eleanor Blair Studio and Gallery

113 S Main Street

Artists Michele Karahalios and Frank Barone at the Eleanor Blair Studio.

13.) Vello Historic Brickstreet Grill

115 SE 1st Street

Paintings by Oliver Norden are on view at Vello. Born in Antwerp, Belgium, Norden received a classical art education. At age 10 he was apprenticed to Belgian master painter Raphael Guislain of the Academy of Antwerp. He grew up immersed in the world of art, attending auctions at Christies and Sotheby's in Amsterdam, London and Paris with his mother.

14.) Starbucks Downtown

201 SE First Street

Simone Seely is an 8 year old violinist. From American Old-Time Fiddle Tunes to Renaissance Concertos and Gypsy Jazz, she plays songs from a wide variety of genres. Her debut Album, "Music is in the Air," includes songs mainly from the American Folk Tradition. Consistently achieving a "Superior Rating" from the National Federation of Music Clubs, Simone has also received The "Honorable Mention" Award from them. She also won the Longleaf Pine Fiddle Contest when she was 7.

15.) Artisans' Guild Gallery

201 SE 2nd Place, Suite 113

"Big Impressions!" - Fine arts and fine crafts created by more than 50 regional artists. Music provided by Tierra Libre out front.

16.) Persona Vintage Clothing & Costumes

201 SE 2nd Pl. #114

New oil paintings and woodcarvings by Milan Hooper will be featured at Persona. Hooper is a self-taught artist that works mostly in recycled and repurposed materials. The work could be described as Outsider or Folk Art. This exhibit contains some big colorful paintings, as well as some smaller ones.

17.) Hippodrome Gallery

25 SE 2nd Place

Artwork by Melanie Ann Wegner will be featured at the Gallery. The body of work on exhibit comes from her love of nature and animals. In the animals, there is a blend of familiar human emotions, often comical, reflecting human psychology and expressions.

18.) Civic media Center

433 S Main Street

Exhibit: "Spectrum – A Night of Artistic Variety" featuring work from John Dease, Darlene Muto and Robin Jade

19.) SoMA Art Media Hub

601 South Main Street

The SoMa (South Main) Art Media HUB is the brainchild of founders Celino Dimitroff and Charley McWhorter. It is designed to be a local retail sales HUB for fine artists and the novice seeking high quality fine arts materials and media. We aim to work closely with the University of Florida and Santa Fe College Fine Arts Departments as well the highly valuable Gainesville artist community. As the business establishes and grows we hope to host and offer events and art workshops to the local community at large. There will be an exhibit featuring work from Celino Dimitroff and Charley McWhorter.

20.) 4Most Gallery

534 SW 4th Ave

Post-Baccs Are Back, February 27 – March 13, 2015 - UF hosts a post-baccalaureate program for ceramics students as a transition after undergraduate school. Gainesville is host and home to a few past students from this program, whose recent work is highlighted in the exhibition. This ceramics exhibition features works by: Catherine Boswell, Eva Champagne, Meagan Chaney-Gumpert, Nigel Rudolph and Sara Truman.